

THE RESOLUTION EXPERTS

F. Carlton King, Jr. is an experienced mediator and arbitrator who has handled cases in many substantive areas of practice. His 30 plus years as an active trial lawyer -- representing individuals and multinational corporations, plaintiffs and defendants, in both federal and state courts in many states -- provide him with insight into the wide array of legal and practical issues that usually impact settlement.

ADR Experience and Qualifications

Carlton's mediation, arbitration, and litigation experience includes a wide variety of cases:

- Business torts (unfair competition, trade secret theft, trade name infringement, contract interference, price discrimination, fraud, and professional malpractice)
- Employment (contracts, restrictive covenants, sex, age, race, and disability discrimination, negotiation of severance packages)
- Real estate disputes (involving developers, custom and production builders, homeowners, brokers, and commercial leases)
- Business disputes (breach of contract, UCC, and computer software)
- Banking
- Disputes between partners, limited partners, shareholders, and joint venturers, including dissolution of professional and other partnerships and corporations
- Trusts and estates (will and estate contests, breach of fiduciary duty)
- Product liability (personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death)
- Medical malpractice and other claims for personal injury and wrongful death
- Insurance (including coverage and bad faith issues)

"Carlton was masterful in a win/win business deal. I've never seen a better cold hard reality check to the participants. I recommend Carlton for any tough mediation."
- Senior Litigator for a large business firm
