Mr. Damron specializes in Alternative Dispute Resolution including mediation, settlement conferences and arbitration. Mr. Damron has mediated hundreds of matters in his practice through the years, and his participation as a Judge Pro Tem. In addition, Mr. Damron has completed a certification course as a Mediator through the Mediation Agency of Belfast, N. Ireland and has attended the prestigious Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine School of Law.

Mr. Damron also offers his services as a special master to assist in the resolution of discovery matters and other issues in complex litigation the court and/or parties require assistance in resolving. After decades practicing in complex litigation, he has extensive experience in the types of disputes that arise in these cases.

Mr. Damron was named one of the Best of the Bar in the Litigator category in the January 30, 2004 issue of The Business Journal in its annual Best of the Bar section. Attorneys who are named Best of the Bar are nominated from within and outside their firm, with greater weight being given to nominations outside their firm.

Mr. Damron is licensed to practice law in the States of Arizona and California. He is also admitted to the U.S. District Court, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court. He graduated in 1975 from Arizona State University College of Law. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969 from Arizona State University. He joined Sanders & Parks, P.C. in 1983, where he was an owner and director. Mr. Damron was the Managing Director of Sanders & Parks, P.C. 1999-2007 and retired from the practice of law in January, 2007. Mr. Damron serves as a Judge Pro Tem for the Maricopa County Superior Court.

Mr. Damron has written many articles and appeared often in Continuing Legal Education forums. As examples, he wrote "Preparing Your Client For Mediation" which appeared in the Arizona Bar Journal; he appeared as the featured guest on the UK television show "Mediation Today" in July of 2007 and was featured faculty in the November, 2010 CLE Conference for Solo & Small Firm Practice "Mediation and Arbitration."

Mr. Damron's hourly rate for mediation for 2011 is $380.00 per hour, generally divided amongst the participating parties.
