David is a Florida Supreme Court Certified Civil and Appellate Mediator, and serves as a civil mediator for business litigation, construction defect claims, fiduciary liability, insurance coverage and personal injury claims. As a shareholder in the Orlando office of Marshall Dennehey Warner Coleman & Goggin, he focuses his practice on matters involving business and insurance disputes, employment claims, products and professional liability suits, and business torts for insurers and both public and privately held companies.

David is a member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals, an association of ADR professionals distinguished by their hands-on experience in the field of civil and commercial conflict resolution. In 2009 he was honored by the Orange County Bar Association (OCBA) for his outstanding service to the OCBA Foreclosure Mediation Project.

He is rated AV® Preeminent™ by Martindale-Hubbell and he frequently speaks to lawyers and insurance professionals across the United States on issues relating to liability insurance, litigation management and effective mediation advocacy. David is admitted to practice in Florida including the U.S. Court of Appeals 11th Circuit and the U.S. District Courts for the Northern, Middle and Southern Districts of Florida.
