Fred Fohrell has been selected to The Best Lawyers in America, is featured in Alabama Super Lawyers, and is AV Preeminent Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell. He obtained his law degree from the University of Alabama School of Law where he won the Moot Court Competition, was selected as Outstanding Oral Advocate, and co-authored the Best Brief in the Thirty-first Annual National Moot Court Competition held in New York.

Mr. Fohrell has served as President of the Huntsville-Madison County Bar Association, Chair of the Alabama State Bar Workers' Compensation Section, and on the Legal Advisory Committee of the Department of Labor Workers' Compensation Division. He has been a frequent lecturer at workers' compensation seminars, including those sponsored by the University of Alabama School of Law, Cumberland School of Law, the Alabama Department of Labor, and the Alabama Workers' Compensation Organization, Inc.

While he for many years has primarily concentrated in employment and workers' compensation matters, Mr. Fohrell's experience is diverse. In addition to handling thousands of civil litigation matters over the course of his career, he has been retained as a private mediator and successfully helped to resolve well over two hundred disputed matters. Further, in addition to his time in private practice, he has served as Chief Assistant District Attorney for Madison County and as counsel to the Governor of Alabama.
