

Reggie Copeland Jr., Esq.

Biography

Reggie Copeland, Jr. was born in Mobile, Alabama and graduated from Spring Hill College in 1975. Reggie received his law degree from Cumberland School of Law in 1978. He joined The Gardner Firm as a partner effective May 1, 2011.

Reggie is an experienced mediator and litigator who focuses primarily on product liability, nursing home-related claims, personal injury, insurance disputes, bad faith and commercial litigation.

He has tried more than 100 jury trials in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and Illinois. His successes include a products liability case in which he secured a verdict for his client in excess of $22 million. The month-long case concerned the design flaws in a slant blade meat saw used in butcher shops and was tried in a county in Illinois where there had never been a punitive damage award in a personal injury case.

Reggie is admitted to practice in all state courts in Alabama and in United States District Courts in the Northern and Southern districts of Alabama. He is also admitted to practice in the United States Courts of Appeals for the 5th and 11th Circuits.

Reggie is an AV® rated lawyer by Martindale-Hubbell and in 2010 was selected for membership in the Best Lawyers® of America – Products Liability Litigation and in 2012 and 2013 for Plaintiff's – General Litigation.

He is a member of the American, Alabama and Mobile County Bar Associations. He is a founding member of the South Alabama Trial Lawyers Association and has just finished a term as Chair of the Dispute Resolution Section of the Alabama State Bar.
