

Shuli Green

Shuli Green began her legal career as a staff attorney to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. From 2001 to 2013, Shuli practiced with several Atlanta-based defense firms where she specialized in complex litigation, personal injury, insurance defense, construction defense, medical negligence, products liability, premises liability, and civil rights litigation. Shuli started her own law practice in 2014, focusing primarily on business litigation, contract disputes, and personal injury. After more than 20 years of litigation/trial experience, she joined Miles Mediation & Arbitration as a neutral.

Shuli earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism from the University of Maryland in 1994 and obtained her J.D. from American University, Washington College of Law, in May 1998. She served as a Note & Comment Editor for The ABA/American University Administrative Law Review.

Education

- University of Maryland, Bachelor of Arts, 1994
- American University, Washington College of Law, J.D., 1998

Admitted to Practice

- Georgia State and Superior Courts
- Georgia Court of Appeals
- Supreme Court of Georgia
- United States District Court for the Northern and Middle Districts of Georgia
- United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit

Publications

Mediating the Medical Malpractice Case: Special Considerations and Strategies for Success, April 2023

Professional or Trade Affiliations

- Georgia Trial Lawyers Association
- Southern Trial Lawyers Association
- DeKalb County Bar Association
- Sandy Springs Bar Association

- Lawyers Club of Atlanta
- Georgia Diversity Program, Steering Committee Member