

Terry N. Silverman Profile

Terry N. Silverman attended the University of Florida in Gainesville, Florida, and received his undergraduate degree in 1971. He attended law school at the University of Florida receiving his law degree in 1974. Upon graduation, he was hired in Gainesville as an Assistant State Attorney for the Eighth Judicial Circuit by State Attorney Eugene T. Whitworth. As a prosecutor, he was assigned criminal cases, including misdemeanor and felony charges, for prosecution throughout the six counties that comprise the Eighth Circuit.

Mr. Silverman entered private practice in Gainesville and has practiced in this area for 34 years. He has represented clients in many different types of cases including automobile accidents, wrongful death, business and contract disputes. In addition to representing clients in state court, Mr. Silverman is also admitted in the United States District Court for the Northern, Middle and Southern Districts of Florida and has trial experience in all of them.

He is also a member of the Bar of the United States Supreme Court, and the Eleventh and Fifth Circuit Courts of Appeal. He has served on the Florida Bar Grievance Committee and Fee Arbitration Committee for the Eighth Judicial Circuit of Florida and is currently on the Board of Directors for the Federal Bar Association for the Northern District of Florida, Gainesville Division. Additionally, Mr. Silverman is a Master with the James C. Adkins, Jr. American Inn of Court.

Mr. Silverman obtained his certification from the Florida Supreme Court as a Certified Circuit and County Court Mediator and over the last several years has mediated more than 500 cases with the vast majority resulting in settlement. Mr. Silverman feels that his active litigation practice enhances his understanding of the system and the problems that lawyers and their clients confront. In turn, that experience makes him an effective mediator – a mediator who can relate to lawyers and their clients. His reputation as an effective mediator has made him one of the busiest mediators in the Gainesville area.

Mr. Silverman's office is designed and comfortably furnished to accommodate the needs of attorneys and their clients utilizing his mediation practice.
