

Loys A. "Trey" Jordan, III

LOYS A. "TREY" JORDAN, III is a member of the firm. He concentrates his practice in general civil litigation with extensive experience in complex commercial litigation, class action defense, professional negligence and transportation disputes. Trey was admitted to practice before the Tennessee Supreme Court in 1994. After graduating from the University of Tennessee with a B.A. in 1990, Trey earned his law degree from the University of Memphis, Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law in 1994. While a law student, Trey worked for the University of Memphis Office of General Counsel and served as Law Clerk to the Criminal Court Judges for the Thirtieth Judicial District at Memphis, Tennessee. In 2010, Trey became a Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 31 Qualified Mediator and works regularly as both a court appointed and attorney selected mediator to resolve tort and domestic disputes.

Trey is a Member of the American, Tennessee and Memphis Bar Associations and served as a Bar Governor- for the Young Lawyers Division from 1999-2001. Trey was a member in the Leo Bearman Chapter of the American Inns of Court and is an active member of Lawyers Journal Club, to which Trey contributes scholarly works for peer review. Trey regularly lectures on the issues of electronic discovery, defense litigation and deposition strategy, and insurance coverage.