

Warren M. Smith Bio Information

Warren M. Smith was born in Tiptonville, Tennessee, Mr. Smith pursued his undergraduate education at the University of Tennessee at Martin, where he earned a B.S. degree in 1973. He continued his academic journey at the Nashville School of Law, graduating with honors in 1983. During his time there, he was a distinguished member of Cooper's Inn Honor Society, exemplifying his dedication to legal excellence.

In 1983, Mr. Smith was admitted to practice in all courts of the State of Tennessee. Furthermore, he holds admission to practice in the United States District Court for the Middle and Western Districts of Tennessee and the United States Supreme Court. As a member of professional organizations such as the Nashville Bar Association (where he served as the Past Chairman of the Ethics and Professionalism Committee), a Fellow of the Nashville Bar Foundation, Tennessee Bar Association, American Bar Association, and the Tennessee Association of Professional Mediators. Mr. Smith remains actively involved in the legal community.

Mr. Smith's practice encompasses a diverse range of legal areas, including automobile liability defense, trucking liability defense, products liability defense, premises liability defense, personal injury litigation, consumer protection litigation, landlord / tenant litigation, construction defects litigation, commercial litigation, and insurance coverage litigation. With his AV peer review rating from Martindale Hubbell, he has garnered recognition for his exceptional skills and commitment to his clients' best interests.

Mr. Smith is a listed Rule 31 General Civil Mediator certified by the Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission of the Tennessee Supreme Court. Since attaining his Rule 31 designation in 2017, Mr. Smith has mediated hundreds of cases to a successful conclusion. His years of experience as a litigator and his prior insurance claims experience provides an insight that has proven beneficial to the resolution of contested cases. An increasing percentage of his practice now is devoted to mediation of civil and commercial matters.